

Matthew C. McKinney

What I wanted most for my son was that he be able to soar confidently in his own world, whatever that may be. Matthew, you have made us all so proud! Know that Da is looking down from heaven and is so very proud of you, too. You are a wonderful grandson, brother, and son. Keep seeking your dreams, and may great success come your way! We all love you very much.

Hesham,

I am very proud of all your accomplishments at CMA. You have become a responsible, caring, and competent young man. Your life has a positive direction that will lead you toward even greater success.

All my love,
Mom
