

Excalibur Supplement 2000

The Reverend James Crowley, pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Roman Catholic Church, delivered the commencement sermon on the power of faith and constructive dreams. Seated behind the Reverend Crowley are Chaplain (Major) Ed Westbury, CMA chaplain; LTC Kelly R. Schrader, academic dean; LTC C. H. Armstrong, commandant; Colonel William K. Orris, headmaster; and Mr. Cam Walters, member of the Board of Trustees.

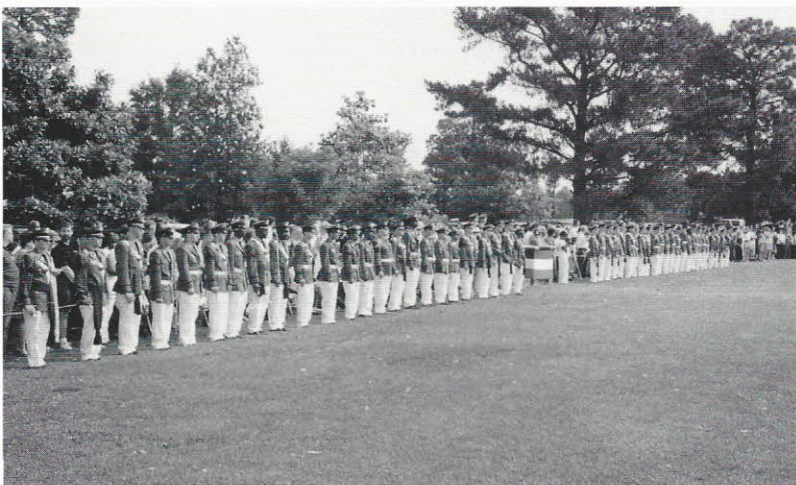

The Camden Military Academy Class of 2000, the largest graduating class in Academy history, listen attentively as the Reverend Crowley delivers the commencement sermon.

On May 21, 2000, Camden Military Academy presented diplomas to forty-nine cadets, the largest graduating class in the history of the Academy. The graduates will continue their education in institutions of higher learning all over the nation and the world from the University of Southern California to The Citadel and as far away as Cairo University, Egypt. Assisted by LTC Kelly R. Schrader, LTC C. H. Armstrong, and Mr. Cam Walters, Colonel William K. Orris, headmaster, presents a diploma to Cadet Captain Nicholas A. Blumer of New York City.

LTC Kelly R. Schrader, academic dean, recognizes 1LT Travis Friese for attaining the highest senior class average.

Prior to the commencement ceremony, the Cadet Corps honored the Class of 2000 with a parade. Senior class members stand ready for the battalion to pass in review.

LTC C. H. Armstrong, commandant, attaches a streamer recognizing A Company as Honor Company of 2000, a repeat performance. Commanded by CPT Nick Blumer, A Company also won the Academic Award. The Athletic Award went to C Company, Best in Drill to B Company, and the Spirit Award to Band and Staff.
