

Special Events

Visitor's Day Parade: In early November Camden Military Academy held its first visitor's day of the year. Cadet LTC Rafael Boshetti, battalion commander, reports to Col. William K. Orris, headmaster, and to LTC C. H. Armstrong, commandant.

First Lieutenant Colin Buchanan leads D Company by the reviewing stand. D Company was formed this year and represents the first step in expanding the battalion to 300 cadets. Well over 100 visitors were present for parent/teacher conferences and the parade.

See You at the Flagpole Service: Getting the school year off to a proper start spiritually, a sunrise prayer service was held at the flagpole early in the first semester. The event was well attended by cadets, faculty, and staff.

Ring Ceremony: The annual Ring Ceremony for graduating seniors is a proud day for all the CMA family. Cadet LTC Rafael Boschetti salutes the corps after receiving his ring from Mr. Cam Walters, member of the Board of Trustees.

Christmas Celebrations: Before leaving for the holidays, CMA celebrated Christmas with both frivolity and gravity. Mr. David Reuwer narrates the action as the Way Off Broadway Players present MAJ LePage as a wayward Santa Claus holding up Mr. Gene McCaskill, MSG Tom Hewitt, CPT Jim Fitzpatrick, and CPT Bob Whitmire.

Fall Sports Banquet: LTC Eric Boland, athletic director, assists Coaches Rice and Priester in presenting awards to members of the Junior High Football Team. The event is important to both cadets and parents because it rewards sports participants for their dedication and hard work.
