

Homecoming Parade

In the reviewing stand for this year's parade were Colonel William K. Orris, headmaster; Dr. Robert Blackwell, president of the Alumni Association; and Lieutenant Colonel C. H. Armstrong, commandant of cadets.

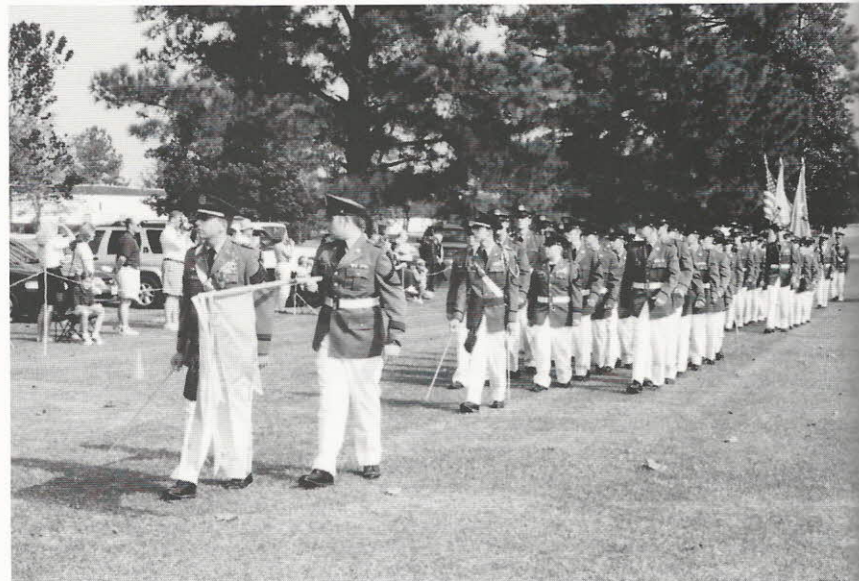

On October 28, 2000, Camden Military Academy held its fourth annual Homecoming. Over 100 parents, friends, and alumni joined the Cadet Corps for the event, which began with a golf outing on Friday, October 27. Following registration and a reception on Saturday morning, the CMA Battalion held a dress parade for the visitors. After the parade, awards were presented to distinguished alumni. Following lunch, spectators were treated to an exciting offensive display when the Spartans defeated Northside 58-14 in the afternoon football game. The highlight of the weekend was the testimony of award recipients as to how CMA had inspired and shaped their lives. Dr. Robert Blackwell will continue as Alumni Association president and looks forward to another successful Homecoming in 2001.

Receiving the Distinguished Alumni Award was Dr. Breeden J. Blackwell (CMA '64). Presented CMA Service Awards were Mr. William G. Hamilton (CMS '40), Mr. Henry Moore (CMA '42), and Ms. Elizabeth Varn. Recipients of Alumni Achievement Awards were Mr. Ogden S. Babson (CA '52), Major General Van C. Doubleday (CMS '47), Senator William H. O'Dell (CA '56), and Mr. Daniel Wayne Waddell (CMA '60).

CPT Rivers Killen leads A Company by the reviewing stand. A Company is Honor Company this year.

Under the command of 2LT Kris Thapoung, the CMA Color Guard enters the parade ground.

Led by CPT Rhett Parkman, C Company passes in review. The platoon leader is 2LT David White.
