

A Company

Alpha Seeks Honor Title Again

Alpha Company won the honor title last year and wants to repeat in 2001. "Evil A" still gets up to the sound of "Airbourne Airs," provided by LTC Cook for everyone's listening pleasure. The goals of A Company continue to be spotless barracks, high study hall ratings, excellent grades, winning military competitions, and a lot of participation in athletics. "Colonel Cook keeps us going in the right direction," says Company Commander Rivers Killen. Athletic participation remains high this year. All the officers have played varsity sports, and nearly all the cadets have, also.

"We are committed to winning Honor Company again this year," observes 1LT James Bakker, executive officer. "Drill and more drill, frequent inspections, and attention to detail will get us there." Alpha wants to be the best drilled, the best disciplined, and the best educated company in the battalion.

Staff: Guidon Erik R. Barr Row 2: 2LT Travis J. Watson, 1SGT Joshua L. Summers, 2LT Christopher T. Ehrke Row 3: CPT W. Rivers Killen, LTC Paul Cook, tactical officer, 1LT James F. Bakker

Since it rained, there is no drill. 1SG Summers, LTC Cook, CPT Killen, and 2LT Watson confer on the allocation of inside duties.

A Company "thanes" on the front porch: Killen Row 2: Hardin, Wooten, Carver, Biber, Burnette Row 3: Bruce, Risher, Watson, Kinard, Eubank, Hayes, Martin, Stonecipher, Callaghan