

Timothy Roy Ross

I was never so blessed as I was the day you were born. With each passing day, I have felt more and more blessed to have you as my son. You and I have been through a lot, but we have survived it all. I've always wanted to be able to give you more outside of an education at CMA, but I guess you've noticed that you will need to provide the "more" part for yourself. The past four and half years have been very difficult, not only for you, but also for me and your grandparents. However, I know that someday you will be able to say that CMA was the best thing for you. Tim, I always knew that you could do it. There is no one on this earth who is as proud of their son as I am of you. You have become a strong and mature young man. May all your hopes and dreams come true. I only wish you much happiness and success in the coming years. I love you, Tim, with all my heart and soul.

My love forever,
Mom
