

Excalibur Supplement 2001

The Reverend Bruce Hancock, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Camden, delivered the commencement sermon on achieving happiness through selfless service to others and commitment to God. Seated behind the Reverend Crowley are LTC Kelly R. Schrader, Chaplain (MAJ) Ed Westbury, LTC C. H. Armstrong, Colonel William K. Orris, and Mr. J. Banks Scarborough.

On May 20, 2001, Camden Military Academy presented diplomas to seventy-five cadets, the largest graduating class in the history of the Academy. The graduates will continue their education in institutions of higher learning all over the nation. As his mother takes his picture, Cadet Robert Lee McCants of Sumter, South Carolina, receives his diploma from Colonel William K. Orris, Headmaster, assisted by Mr. J. Banks Scarborough, Board Chairman; LTCC. H. Armstrong, Commandant; and LTC Kelly R. Schrader, Academic Dean.

The Camden Military Academy Class of 2001, the largest graduating class in Academy history, listen attentively as the Reverend Hancock delivers the commencement sermon.

LTC Kelly R. Schrader, Academic Dean, recognizes CPT Rivers Killen for attaining the highest senior class average.

Prior to the commencement ceremony, the Cadet Corps honored the Class of 2001 with a parade. Senior class members march to the graduation site after the parade.

LTC C. H. Armstrong, Commandant, congratulates 1SG Rustin Gasperson and B Company for achieving the Honor Company distinction. Commanded by CPT Tao Jiang, B Company also won the Academic and Best Drilled Awards. The Athletic Award went to C Company; the Spirit Award, to D Company.
