Rashad Willoughby was CMA's fastest miler this year and won an award for his outstanding performance.

In an outstanding year, the Spartan Track and Field Team met all its goals and laid the foundation for greater success in the future. They learned to understand and live with the joy and pain of running well, to exceed their own capabilities, to raise their own expectations, and to support one another as a team unit. By the end of the season, the Spartans had whittled their numbers down to a dedicated 24. The team's efforts and aspirations came together at the Heathwood Hall Invitational Track Meet, where CMA beat eight strong schools, including Orangeburg Prep, Heathwood Hall, Hammond, Wilson Hall,

In one of the most difficult field events, Victor Sanchez carried the load for the Spartans in the pole vault this season.

Junior Frank Hill shows the form that made him a consistent winner in high jump competition in 2001.

Senior Jonathan McCourt's superior strength enabled him to defeat most of his opponents in the shot put this year.

Spartans: DS Prince, VR Sanchez, JM Chandler, JT Stamm, FA Ramsey, RL Boschetti and Thomas Sumter. Foster Ramsey and Thez Robinson set new school records: Ramsey in the 300 meter hurdles and Robinson in the 200 meter dash. Winning awards this season were MVP's Ramsey and Robinson; Damien Prince, Most Improved; Rashad Willoughby, Fastest Miler; Jacob Chandler, Heart and Soul Award; and Robert Johnson, Manager's Award. In 5 meets the 2001 Spartans had 13 wins against 6 losses. They finished 2nd in the conference. A solid core of young, enthusiastic athletes will return in 2002 to continue the precedent of high standards set this year.

On the track or in the broad jump, 8th grader Damien Prince, MIP, excels.

With his smooth style and superior stamina, senior MVP Foster Ramsey had an outstanding year and set a school record in the 300 meter hurdles.

Sophomore Jacob Chandler is a tough competitor who won the Heart and Soul Award for superlative effort this season.

Senior John Stamm and junior Erich Weber were always reliable performers.

Taking first and second place, Frank Hill and Dwayne Kinney give the effort that CMA runners exhibited all season.

Senior Rafael Boschetti and Jacob Chandler finish one and two.
