

Stephen,
My, how you have grown since that first day we laid eyes on you. We had no idea 18 years ago what was ahead of us, and now you face that same thing. Your life is before you, and it holds so many possibilities. We know you are capable of accomplishing so much and being everything you want to be. As you go from graduation day and move to the next phase of life, our love and support go with you. Always rely on God for guidance; for in Him you will find the answers for your life, and never forget the value of your family's love. We are very proud of you.

Love,
Mom and Dad
Jeff and Cassie
