Camden Military Academy put a strong wrestling team on the mat this season, led by all-stars Lance Lott, Nick Leftwich, Ryan Hayden, and Josh Dividian. The Spartans got off to a promising start by beating Indianland, a top state-ranked team. The team had a brief letdown after Christmas but rebounded in the end, winning most of their matches in January and February. They followed Coach Dority's advice "to never give up, keep fighting, finish strong." "We had many cadets with little experience this year," said Coach Hewitt, "but they were really big in heart."
