

Excalibur Supplement 2003

David "Twig" Gray, Director of the South Carolina Fellowship of Christian Athletes, delivered the commencement sermon. He advised cadets that God has a plan for the world and for every individual. Those who can tap into the plan can be world changers. Seated behind Mr. Gray are Chaplain (Major) Ed Westbury; LTC Kelly R. Schrader, Academic Dean; LTC C. H. Armstrong, Commandant; Colonel William K. Orris, Headmaster; and Mr. J. Banks Scarborough, Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

On May 18, 2003, Camden Military Academy presented diplomas to sixty-four cadets from many parts of the United States. Most of the graduates will continue their education in institutions of higher learning all over the nation. Some will serve their country in the military. Assisted by LTC C. H. Armstrong, Commandant, Colonel William K. Orris, Headmaster, presents a diploma to Cadet David Luke Dunn of Orlando, Florida. Cadet Dunn received an academic scholarship from the University of South Florida for $40,000 over a four-year period.

Having received their diplomas, members of the Class of 2003 listen to the final general order of the year, announcing promotions for next school term.

LTC Kelly R. Schrader, Academic Dean, recognizes CPT Phillip Collins for attaining the highest senior class average.

After a parade in their honor, members of the Class of 2003 march toward White Field House, where they will receive their diplomas.

LTC C. H. Armstrong, Commandant, presents the Commandant's Award to Cadet CPT Philip Palmgren, also the recipient of the Daughters of the American Revolution Award.

LTC C. H. Armstrong congratulates CPT Karl Kakadelis and Delta Company for winning the Honor Company designation. The Academic Award went to Band and Staff; the Athletic Award to A Company; the Best Drilled Award to C Company; and the Spirit Award to B Company.
