

In the reviewing stand are Colonel Eric Boland, headmaster, J. Banks Scarborough, chairman of the board, Colonel Lanning P. Risher, headmaster emeritus, Lieutenant Colonel Ray White, Charles E. Hughes, James S. duFief, Henry Moore, and Cam Walters Row 2: Lieutenant Colonel C. H. Armstrong, commandant, and Colonel Jim Bradin.

Colonel Eric Boland, headmaster, and outgoing Alumni Association President James duFief troop the line.

Camden Military Academy held its annual Homecoming on Friday and Saturday, October 31 and November 1, 2003. Friday featured golf in the morning and an alumni reception and registration in the evening at the Best Western in Lugoff. On Saturday there was another reception and continued registration in the Risher Administration Building, followed by a parade in honor of alumni and award recipients. The most important event of the weekend, the presentation of alumni awards, occurred in White Field House at noon. Charles E. Hughes, Jr., (CMA '61) and Walter K. Lunn (CMS '39) received the Alumni Achievement Award. Mr. Hughes is president and CEO of Florida Banks, Inc. A WWII veteran, Mr. Lunn has helped rehabilitate hundreds of alcoholics. Mr. duFief retired as a manager for the Washington, D. C., Gas and Light Company and served in the National Guard, retiring as a lieutenant colonel after 30 years. Lieutenant Colonel White was commandant and assistant headmaster of CMA from 1968 to 1989. Award presentations were followed by lunch at 1:00 P. M. and a football game at 2:00. The Spartans treated alumni to another homecoming victory.

After the parade the awards ceremony was held in White Field House.

The Spartan Football Team treated spectators to another exciting homecoming victory. Alumni thoroughly enjoyed themselves on an afternoon with perfect weather for football.

The post-game cookout attracted many alumni and family who stayed to watch Spartan football, a pleasant culmination of the weekend's activities.