

Excalibur Supplement 2004

The Reverend Dr. Garry White, pastor of St. Timothy's Lutheran Church, delivered the commencement sermon. He advised cadets to take responsibility, get help from others, and do the necessary work to get the job done. Moreover, the love of God is revealed through the love of human beings for one another. Seated behind Dr. White are Chaplain (MAJ) Ed Westbury, LTC Don Parrotte, academic dean, and LTC C. H. Armstrong, commandant.

On May 16, 2004, Camden Military Academy presented diplomas to fifty-seven cadets. Most graduates will continue their education in institutions of higher learning all over the nation. Some will enter military service. Assisted by Colonel Eric Boland, headmaster, Board Chairman J. Banks Scarborough presents a diploma to his grandson, Cadet First Lieutenant Andrew Hemphill. Members of this year's graduating class earned scholarships valued in excess of $1,000,000.

LTC Don Parrotte, academic dean, presents the medal for highest senior class average to Cadet Captain Ian Steigelman.

Cadet First Lieutenant Brandon N. Haley from San Diego, California, received a scholarship valued at $250,000 from the United States Coast Guard Academy.

LTC C. H. Armstrong congratulates CPT Ryan Hayden and Band and Staff Company for winning the Best Drilled Award. Alpha Company won designations as Honor Company, Best in Academics, and Best in Athletics. Delta Company received the Spirit Award.
