

Special Events

On 26 September 2004 CMA honored Dr. Francis N. McCorkle with a reception, parade, and ceremony dedicating the CMA Infirmary in his name. Dr. McCorkle has served CMA cadets since the school's opening in 1958.

Every year, CMA honors its fall athletes with a Sports Banquet. Coach Horn presents awards and certificates to members of the Junior Varsity Football Team.

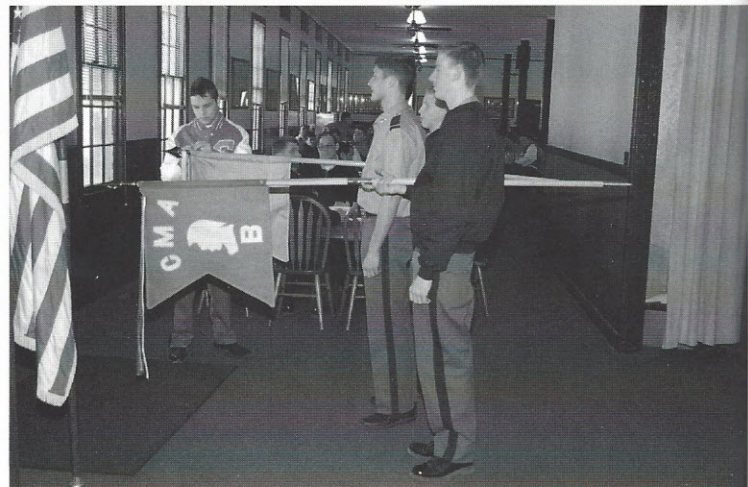

Senior Cadet Henry E. Meise salutes Headmaster Colonel Eric Boland after receiving his ring in the annual Ring Ceremony in November.

CSM Martain presents CMA gifts to the Reverend Dr. Norman A. Brown, featured speaker on Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s, birthday. He is presently pastor of New Life Church in Orangeburg and served as an officer in the U. S. Air Force Reserve until 1988.

Colonel Eric Boland, headmaster, congratulates cadets who earned Gold Stars for their first semester academic performance.

LTC Luke Parker, battalion commander, attaches streamers honoring A and B Companies as first semester Honor Companies.