The Keys to Success

Camden Military Academy's overall goal is to produce students who can succeed in college studies, in other post-secondary pursuits, and in meeting the usual challenges in life. To accomplish this goal, we mix the latest technology with proven traditional methods: small classes, highly qualified teachers, and monitored study halls. We continuously evaluate our curriculum to determine the most effective ways to help our young men learn.

Lieutenant Colonel Don Parrotte

In his second year at CMA, Dean Don Parrotte has enrolled over twenty seniors in college level English courses, which he himself teaches. Moreover, he provides an invaluable service to students by helping them get enrolled in the colleges of their choice. He also finds time in his busy schedule to assist with the lacrosse team and keep the clock at basketball games. Dean Parrotte earned his A. B. degree in English from Alliance College, his M. A. from the University of Alabama, and his ABD from Auburn University.
