

A highly effective teacher of world history and government, CPT Thane Maness is also head baseball coach and devotes many hours after school to his coaching duties.

A dedicated teacher who often tutors students after school, LTC Glenn Melton is also sponsor of the Civil Air Patrol, which has a growing membership and participates in many flight related activities.

In addition to his duties as physical science instructor, CPT William Johnson is head basketball coach and assistant football coach. He emphasizes character development and academics in his coaching format.

A new and welcome addition to the CMA faculty is Mrs. Heather Lindsay, an accomplished Spanish instructor, who earned her bachelor's degree at Western Carolina University and her master's at the University of South Carolina.

SFC David Green, Band Director, is a talented musician who is a member of the South Carolina National Guard Band. In addition, he is the CMA quartermaster.

CPT Ed Porter, mathematics instructor, is also a varsity football coach with many years of coaching success.