

Thomas Attard

Our Prayer for Thomas

Dear Lord, thank You for blessing our life with our son Thomas. As parents, we have taught him and also learned from him.

We ask that You make him strong enough to know when he is weak and courageous enough to face himself when he is scared. Let him be proud, humble, and gentle.

Lead him not only in the path of ease and comfort, but fortify him through difficulties and challenges. Be with him when he stands in the storms of life. Teach him to have compassion for others that fail. And let his shoulders be broad enough to carry the burden of others until they can stand on their own.

Let Thomas's heart be pure, his goals high. Teach him that in helping his fellow man his achievements will be greater than worldly goods.

Teach him to be a man who laughs yet never forgets how to weep, one who will reach into the future yet never forget the past. Thank You for his wonderful sense of humor. Never let him take himself too seriously. Let him always look at life through the eyes of a child.

Bless our child with humility, honesty, love, and compassion. Show him that the simple truth is through You. We thank You for the joy that he brings to our life each and every day and for Your guidance in his life.

Amen
