

D Company

A Tradition of Excellence

Delta Company remains one of the first companies in the Corps because of its commitment to maintaining an appropriate balance among its military, academic, and athletic efforts. By learning to be good stewards of their time and talents, each Delta cadet has begun to experience some of those successes that should mark a CMA cadet. According to Company Commander Louis Vasquez, "The tradition of excellence begun by previous company commanders has been a benchmark by which the Delta chain of command has led all year. We remain committed to leading the Corps in every way while becoming a credit to our families, communities, and country."
