In his first year as head coach of the CMA Wrestling Team, CPT Jonathan Richard had a young squad that started out slow but came on strong at the end of the season. "This was a great first year for me as coach," he said. "Working with the team and seeing everyone come together was exciting to see. We have about seven or eight starters returning, so next year should be exciting." The goal at the beginning was to have a winning season, and the Spartans came close, finishing the season at 10-10. This very respectable record was achieved after a slow 1-5 start, but Spartan wrestlers came on strong about mid-season and finished with a flourish. "Eddie Aiken and Andrew Smith were outstanding this year," Coach Richard added. "Eddie has come a long way, and Smith has been dominant."

Andy Smith puts on high pressure with a Half Nelson.

Eddie Aiken has his man totally under control and is near the pin.

Charles Carr had his man's number all the way and gets the pin.

Nick Leftwich is completing a Hip Throw to overpower his opponent.

Ben Knieff powers down his man with a Headlock.

This is not the kind of dance Tony Thomas' opponent likes. He is going down hard.
