

ALEXANDER SPASOV

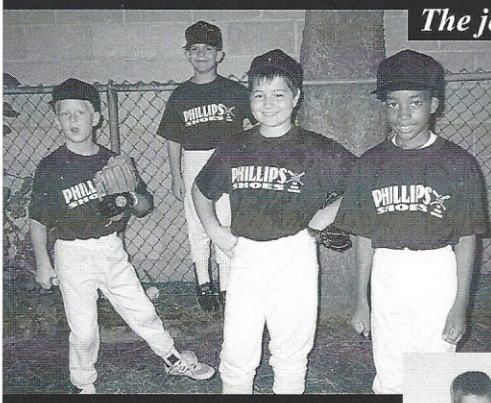

Four years ago a scared and vulnerable boy arrived at CMA... heart heavy with uncertainty and doubt. Now one can see a confident young man who has experienced the joy of true friendship, the sting of defeat, the price of achievement and the yoke of responsibility.

The time has not passed in vain. As for you, Alexander, we pray for God's protection, good fortune, and favorable winds. Courage, my son!

The journey has just begun . . .

Mom

