

Adam C. Totten

My Big Brother Adam-funny dude, You've brightened our family with your laughs-your hilarious comments and your never-ending wit! I have so many fun childhood memories & stories with you. I remember at bedtime we'd always sneak into mom & dad's bed and read stories all night-You never could go to sleep! I miss my little brother, but I love having a big brother too. I'm so very happy for you on completing your high school years successfully! There's SO much to look forward to in the years to follow, ENJOY!! I love you Adam. XOXO, Leah (eeah)

Dear Son, You are a special person, our son and a gift from God our Father. I am proud of you for just being you but also for your drive to do what you know is right. Your graduation year is a special milestone in your life-continue to pursue God's will-he has great plans for you!! Love, Dad & Mom

Psalm 32:8 The Lord says: "I will guide you along the best pathway for your life. I will advise you & watch over you."
