

Faculty In Action

MAJ Ron Horn (USA-Ret), mathematics, political science, and economics teacher, is known for his intense class lectures and extraordinary teaching abilities.

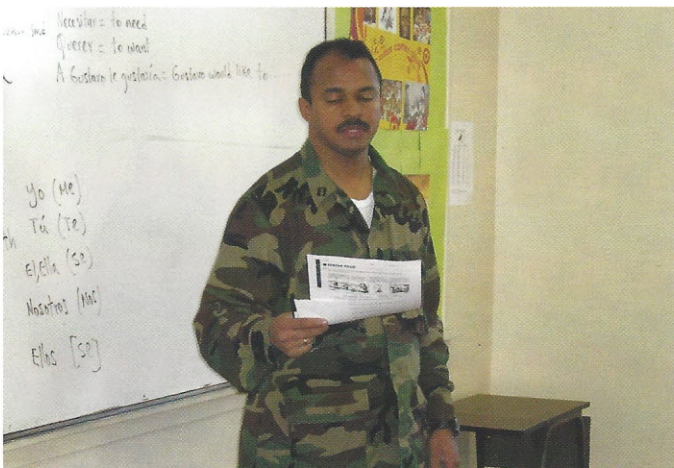

CPT Dan Dupree, science teacher and lacrosse coach, joining the CMA faculty just this year, provides a hands-on physics lesson with the building of a catapult style medieval siege engine.

CPT Patrick Fitzgerald, another new addition to the faculty and lacrosse coaching staff, mentors students in his vocabulary class as they complete a worksheet.

CDR R. E. Ruys (USN-Ret), mathematics instructor in addition to both football and track coach, is a favorite among cadets.

CPT Jair Ararat, Spanish teacher and soccer coach, is the third new instructor added to the faculty this year.

MAJ David LePage (USAF-Ret), instructor of physics and academy registrar, reviews cadet transcripts.
