

Adam J. Poore

Adam,

Nothing worthwhile ever comes without hard work. As the saying goes, "To enjoy the cider, you first must peel the apple." You have peeled the "high school" apple!!

Congratulations! We are so very proud of you. Just keep "peeling those apples."

With all our love, Dad and Mom

Ben Humphries

Ben,

We are so proud of you! This is the first of many great things to come. Keep up the good work. The future is yours.

Love,

Dad, Mom, Jake, Alden, Maddox, Brage,
and Asa
