

Elijah Michael Kitts

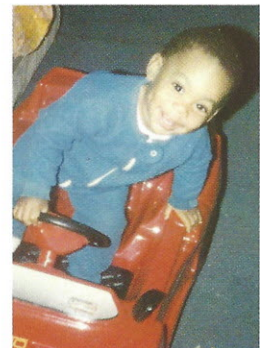

We have seen you brighten a thousand days with your jokes and laughter. We have seen you give all that you have in order to make someone else happy. We have seen you call out to God for the sake of your loved ones. We have seen you unafraid to shed a tear. The world has seen you love, treasure, and make the most of Life's blessings. We have seen a boy become a man.

We love you, Elijah. You will always be your Mommy's and Sissy's #1 man.

The best is yet to come!
