

Left: Rob Ferraro walks to the side line during half time.
Right: The team rests after a time out.

Jr. High Basketball

In 2010 the Jr. High Basketball Team's record was 3-11. They were hard-working, gave 100% effort in games and in practice, and they played well together. Their best game was against Trinity Collegiate. The team never quit and came back from a 10-point deficit to steal the win in the final 15-seconds of the game.

Front Row, left to right: Trajan Krause-Lee, Sam Trout, Lakell Felder, Manager Zachariah Azari.
Second Row, left to right: Head Coach Dan DuPree, Gideon Van Rhoads, Kenneth White, Jacob LeVine, Samuel Hait, (MVP) Rob Ferraro, Assistant Coach Richard Darby.

The team watches and cheers on the other players.

Trajan Krause-Lee and Samuel Hait put their hands up on defense to prevent any inside passes by the offense.

Coach Dan DuPree motivates members of the team during a time out.

Gideon Van Rhoads concentrates as he shoots the freethrow.