

BOY SCOUTS of AMERICA

The Boy Scouts of America Troop 38 at Camden Military Academy has been established for over ten years, while producing more than fifteen Eagle Scouts. The troop is very active and goes on at least ten camping trips each year, along with other numerous merit badge and service activities. The troop numbers from ten to twenty scouts each year, and every member is encouraged to try to be promoted at least once.

