

James Kubiak

As a baby, you were always laughing and a joy to be around! As a child, we realized how strong your character really is. You are now an exceptional young man, full of promise. You continue to bring us joy. Your character is as solid as ever and our love, respect and admiration for you continues to grow with each passing day. Congratulations on all that you have accomplished, in school and in life! With all of our love, Mom, Dad and John

Chris,
We are very proud of you and cannot wait to see what you can accomplish in life.
