

Coming

A sense of nostalgia permeated the atmosphere of Camden Military Academy during its Home Coming celebration, not just for old-timer alumni, but for recent graduates as well. The day was begun with a parade involving pomp and cannon fire, and was concluded with our varsity football team going up against Providence Day.

