

Physical Training

As well as improving the minds of its cadets, Camden Military Academy is committed to improving their bodies. Often in the morning or in the afternoon, cadets are called upon for Physical Training (PT). PT can involve a platoon, a company or the entire battalion and entails stretching, jumping jacks, push-ups and lots of running.

