

Fine Arts

Cadets Caputo (left) and Carr up in arms.

The Fine Arts Department of Camden Military Academy includes several programs. The Fine Arts Club performs musicals and plays. The band performs weekly at the Excalibur Society Dinner. The school also offers photography under the direction of Cpt. Lloyd. The Fine Arts Club has participated in several theater productions in cooperation with Kershaw County Fine Arts Center, including Fame and The Tell Tale Heart. Additionally, Mrs. Thaxton leads classes in graphic art and set design.

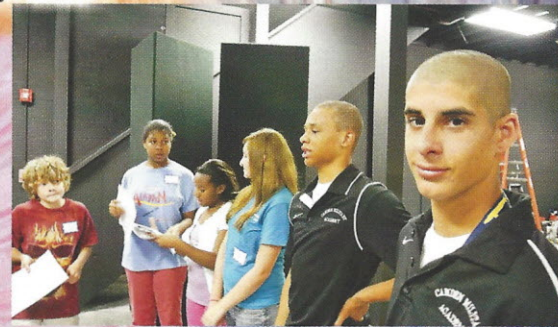

Left to right: Cadets Goodwin, Smith, Hillman, Youngblood, Rasmussen & Carr.

LTC Yarborough escorts cadets to auditions for Fame.

Cadets John Bowen (left) and Quinn Viola (right) work on a production with students from other Kershaw County schools.

Cadet Noah Williams paints the text on a banner for an upcoming basketball game.

Thaxton explains the hanging of banners to newly arrived Cadet Pang from China.

Above, the Fame cast rehearses for their performance.

Art Appreciation is in charge of developing all of the banners and fan paraphernalia for the school. They are also in charge of theater costumes and set designs for Camden Military Academy's Halloween and Christmas plays.