

4. Seeing dramatic improvements in my students, whether in the classroom or on the athletic field over the course of the year; and the increased confidence that such improvement yields. CPT Caleb Thompson

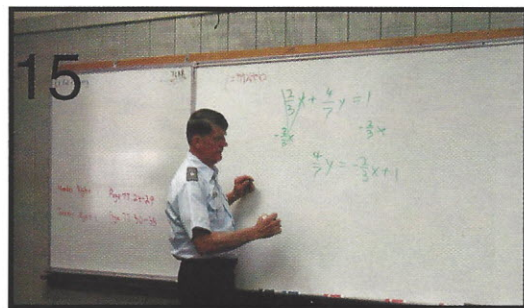

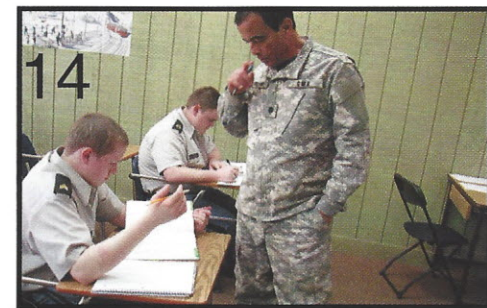

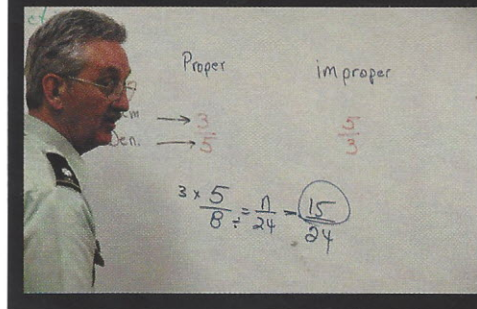

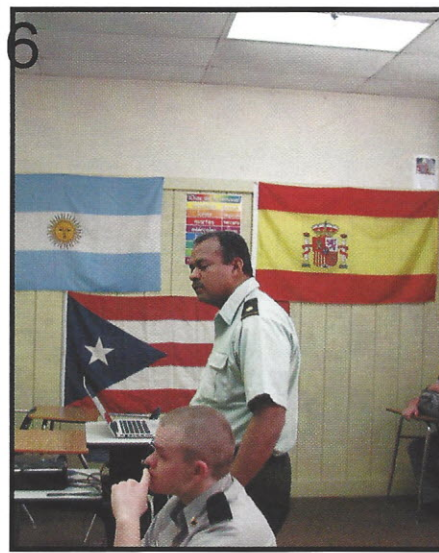

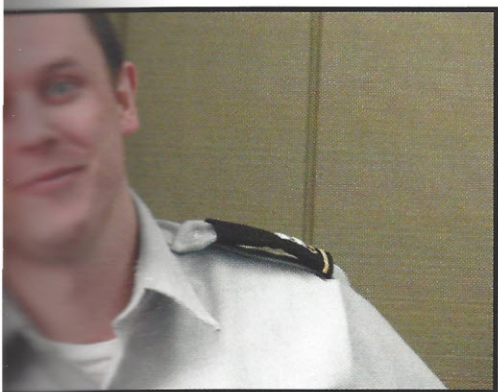

5. "Seeing boys overcome their difficulties and become great young men." LTC Greg Simonson

6. It's to be able to see the impact I'm having on the students everyday, not only academically wise, but also in their lives. It is rewarding to see cadets coming back to CMA after a few years having left the school, and see they still remember me as someone who cared about them and as someone who did his best to help them. MAJ Jair Ararrat

7. "The most rewarding part about coaching and teaching at CMA is watching cadets grow mentally and physically." MSG Tom Hewitt

9. "The most rewarding part of teaching at CMA is being able to see young men's lives change by what we're doing at CMA and to see them have HOPE when there was none! To be a small part of the firm foundation!" LTC W.C. Mobley

13. "The most rewarding part about being a teacher and coach at CMA is the everyday reward of seeing these cadets succeed at academics; and being able to watch these boys grow up socially and mentally." MAJ Griff Beckham

14. "The most rewarding part about teaching and coaching at CMA is reaching out and impacting the lives of these young men in a positive way." LTC Mohsen Ferjani

15. The most rewarding part about teaching at CMA is the opportunity to be the salt and light in the lives of these young men is the most rewarding part of teaching at CMA. This is done not only through academics, but also in C.A.P. Character Development seminars and all other moments of contact in between these events. LTC Glenn Melberg
