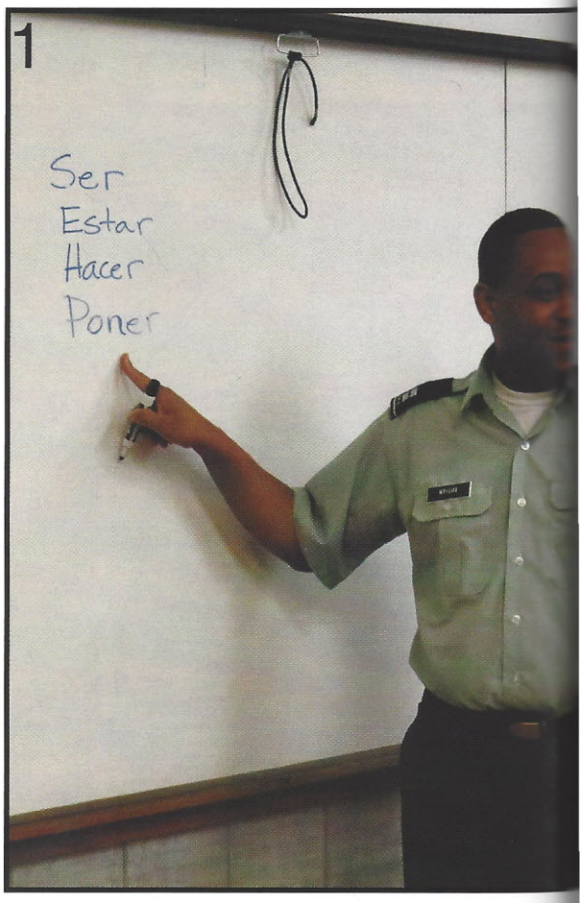
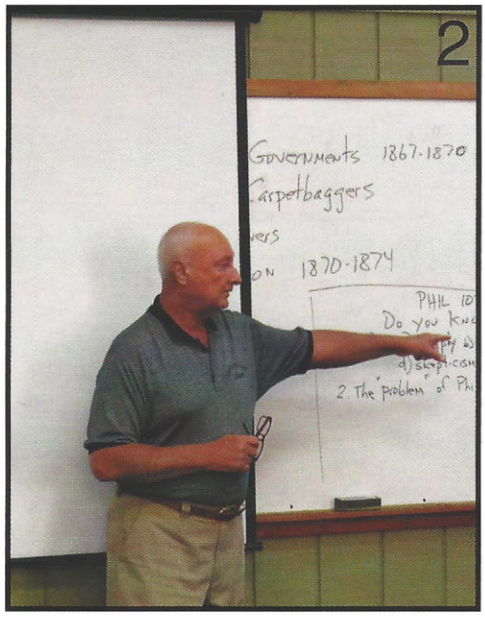
Teachers Faces

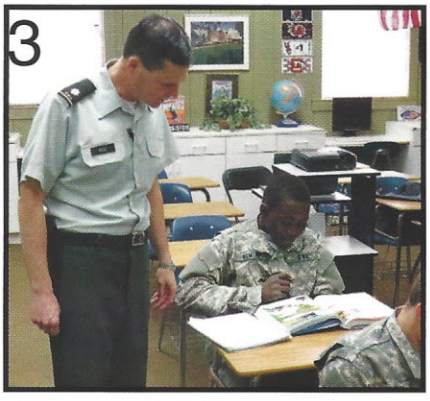
1. "The most rewarding part about teaching at CMA is being able to tap in on cadets that have been academically labeled as challenged, unreachable, or a dying unmotivated species."
CPT Cedric Wright

3. "The best part about teaching at CMA is that the small class sizes allows teachers to give individual attention to students that public schools can't provide."
LTC Will Rice

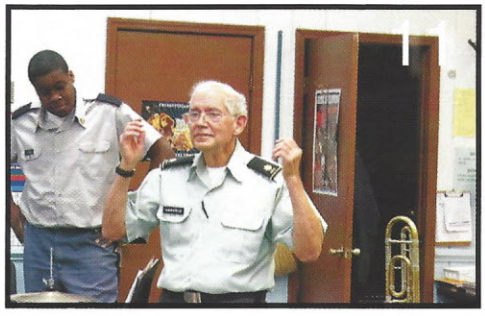


2. "The most rewarding part about being a teacher at CMA is the ability to teach, within standards, as I wish."
LTC KellySchrader





10. "The most rewarding part of teaching at CMA is being able to give individual time and attention, to each and every student, each and every day."
Mrs. Boland



11. "The most rewarding part of my teaching here at CMA is watching the development of my students, both musically and emotionally. As we develop greater technical skills, we also grow in confidence, and are able to play more challenging music. I find this process very gratifying, and personally validating!"
MAJ Joseph Lauricella

12. "Those times when they finally get it is the most rewarding part of teaching and coaching at CMA."
MAJ Ron Horn
