

Cadet Life

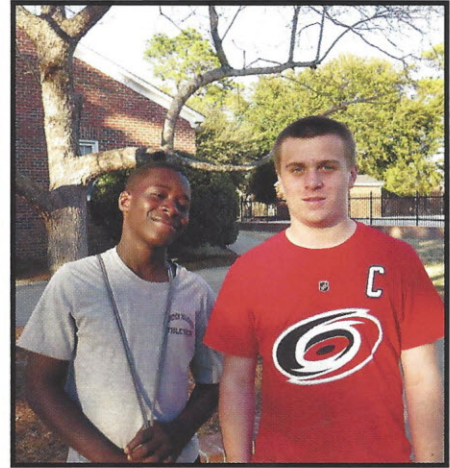

"Character is what really counts in life. What you do speaks so loudly that people seldom hear what you say."
Colonel James F. Risher

Cadet Life 42

"Camden has been a great place to better me as a student. I have come so far because of this school. When I first came I will admit, like others, I was mad. But now I see that it was the best decision my parents could have made. Now I am doing my best to make them proud."

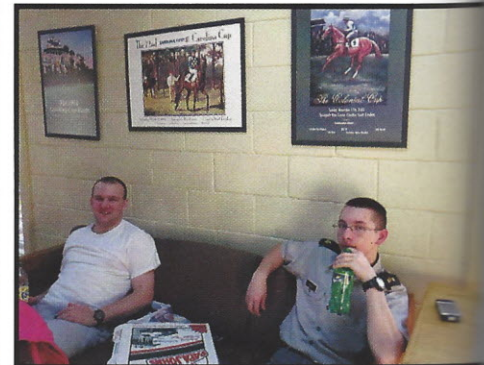

-Jacob McGuire of Pineville, NC

Another fly over day at Camden.

Cadets in the afternoon hang out at the Carlisle House.

Solomon Cantrell and Cullen Rigby enjoying free time.