This year's middle school basketball team was full of surprises. With two players returning from last year's team, J'Den Robertson and Ethan Freeman, we didn't know what to expect. We were pleased with what we got. Starting the season on the road with a win against a good Hammond team and then another one at home against the same Hammond team, had the season off in the right direction. "I was very proud of this team's hard work and dedication. I was pleased with what these kids took away from the season." This year's award winners were as follows: The Coaches Award went to Colby Johnson of Newnan, Georgia. The Most Improved Player was Darnell Rakestraw of Eastpoint, Michigan. The Most Valuable Player on defense was Ethan Freeman of Kennesaw, Georgia, and the Most Valuable Player on offense was J'Den Robertson of Columbia, South Carolina.
