

ake a moment

Homecoming 2015

Camden Military Academy's Homecoming is not a game. It is a seasonal ceremony akin to the migrations and aggregations of birds and beasts. Homecoming is a time when graduates of Carlisle Military School and CMA, some recent graduates of the Academy, some successful young businessmen and other grizzled veterans of foreign wars, converge amongst the falling red and yellow leaves to pay homage to the institution from whence their journeys were first launched.

A Great Game

1. The Varsity team plus coaches watch and cheer on their defense.
2. Family members gather on the bleachers after the first quarter.
3. What an airborne catch!
4. Sean Orcutt (#32) strikes a half-smile after a good play.
5. Spartan football player springs down the field to catch the quarterback's throw.

Faculty Watches On

From Left: Mrs. Thaxton talks about the game while donning blue paint for school spirit.
From Right: Battalion Commander Villalobos and Commandant LTC Lawing discuss the game.