

New Boys

The new cadets arrived on Saturday, August 20th. They were guided from the Administration Building for registration to the White Field House to gather supplies. Faculty helped with fitting and sizing parade coats, shoes, class pants, and hats. Parents loved taking pictures with their newly uniformed sons. Leaders of the Chain of Command then helped the new cadets move into their rooms and learn the blue book.

Registration

Pictured above: 1. New cadets take a splash into the swimming pool for the first time, 2. LTC Melberg sizes a cap on a new cadet head, 3. 1SG Irvin talks to a parent about Band Company, 4. Shane O'Connor (Mantua, New Jersey) tries on his ACUs in the White Field House, 5. Cadets carry a footlocker full of uniforms to Alpha Company.