

"My basketball season was pretty good. I was able to develop good relationships with my teammates and help create good team-building skills. I can't wait until the next good year."

that

"My most memorable moment this season was during a home match when Charlie Company walked in. I thought to myself, 'I can't embarrass myself, I have to win.' There was no doubt in my mind that I was a good wrestler but wrestling in front of people you know is scary. Throughout the match it was a very close battle. Charlie Company was cheering me on as I picked the kid up and slammed him on his side. With 30 seconds to go in the match, I was down by one point, 4-5. At 15 seconds remaining, I took my shot and he went flat on his belly. As fast as I could, I spun around to get my take down for two points with 3 seconds left. All of Charlie Company was cheering and screaming my name. That was also the last match of my career."
