

"Homecoming is a way for alumni, some recent graduates and some from decades ago, to return to campus to reconnect with classmates they haven't heard from since graduating. These graduates share stories, catch up with each other, and remember the grand times they had at Camden."

Bailey Ezell
(Spartanburg, South Carolina)