

SMI

Saturday Morning Inspection

Saturday Morning Inspection (SMI) is the time when cadets conduct a thorough cleaning of their rooms and the barracks. Once all the companies have finished cleaning, The Commandant of Cadets, and the Battalion Commander, walk through each company and inspect the barracks. The company that wins the SMI will receive extra points toward their honor company standings.

Featured above:

1. Wilson Elder (Florence, South Carolina) sweeps the bathroom of Charlie Company alongside 2. Viktor Aysola (Jacksonville, Florida), 3. Patrick Brooks (Camden, South Carolina), and 4. Daniel Carter (Charlotte, North Carolina)