United States Military Academy

A very young Dean gives a thumbs up on his motorbike.

PFC Dean happy to be at parade practice during his first year at CMA.

LTC Dean with his letter of acceptance to West Point.

Christopher Jacob Dean was the Battalion Commander of the 2016-2017 Corps of Cadets. Since arriving at Camden Military in 2015, Dean always strived to do his best. He came back his second year as a Platoon Sergeant and finished with the rank of Second Lieutenant. He was the Cadet of the Year in 2016 and received a medal from the Daughters of the American Revolution. Dean was also valedictorian and team captain of cross country and track. Next year, Dean will be attending the United States Military Academy at West Point. West Point is the U.S. army's service academy with an obligation to serve as a Commissioned Officer 8 years after graduation. West Point is known universally as one of the most prestigious universities in the world.
