

that moment when

EXCALIBUR STAFF MMXVII

(Left to right) Sébastien Offredo,
LTC John Heflin, Jack Furlow

Excalibur Staff in downtown Camden.
(Left to right) Sébastien Offredo, LTC John Heflin, Jack Furlow

"Camden Military Academy has become my home for the past two years (and a summer). Though initially a 'culture shock' from Westport, Connecticut, I've grown to love Camden. To the parents I've given tours to, I've told them this school is great for the academics and military structure, but also the people. You'll meet people from across the country and across the world, so wherever you find yourself after graduation, you'll most likely have a place to stay. All the memories with these people in my second half of high school are unforgettable. For my family, seeing me get promoted in Band Company or making Dean's List could be their most prideful moments of my stay in South Carolina. But for me, it's the time I spent with my best friends. From the duck hunting trip to being a part of Color Guard, the Pecan Festival to even editing the Excalibur, there's so much I've done at Camden Military Academy, it's hard to imagine I'll ever look badly on this place. To everyone staying at Camden, remember to always make the best of what you can."

Sébastien Offredo, Senior Editor (Westport, Connecticut)

"My experience with the Excalibur yearbook staff and the school as a whole has been one I'll never forget. Being able to work with good friends on this yearbook has really placed my values in a different perspective. I enjoyed working on this yearbook and plan on working on it in the future years. I hope what we have created for you is a great representation of the fun time and the hard work we put towards this yearbook and the school year, as well as treasuring the legacy of Camden."

Jack Furlow, Junior Editor (Charlotte, North Carolina)