

THE PALMETTO

DOUGLAS BAYS INGRAHAM
Cope, S. C.

"To know him is to like him."

Entered September 1919; Censor and Vice-President Beach Literary Society; Vice-President Y. M. C. A.; Sergeant-Major, Sergeant, and Second Lieutenant R. O. T. C.; Assistant Executive Officer Rifle Team; Military Editor "The Palmetto"; Class Football; Vice-President Preacher's Sons Club; Secretary and Treasurer Senior Class.

Oh, Fate! how kind you were when, in September of 1919, when you turned aside from the many pleasant vistas of life, and led handsome, innocent "Dugout" into our midst. With his winning smile and lovable disposition, this son of the Methodist Ministry has won a permanent place in the hearts of faculty and students alike. We bespeak for him a happy and brilliant future, no matter where he may roam over the face of creation.
