

THE PALMETTO

CALENDER

- Sept. 22.—Charlie Moyer dumps annual supply of rats on the campus.
- Sept. 25.—Coach Gault initiates a gang into the mysteries of football.
- Sept. 30.—Major Lang arrives on the campus with his usual supply of freak military ideas. We wish he had forgotten these during vacation.
- Oct. 3.—Football team wins first victory of season. "Capt. Bill's" home town is the victim. Score 49 to 0. Feature of game: Absence of football knowledge displayed by both teams.
- Oct. 9.—We have been on the campus eighteen days. "Bull" is in order for the 54th time since our arrival.
- Oct. 12.—"Kemistry" Gothe settles down to the regular grind.
- Oct. 15.—Bogen cuts down one of Colonel's valuable weeds. Bogen is reported as resting fairly well.
- Oct. 20.—Capt. Stabler joins Rabon and "Son" Daniels in a lively tussle. The Captain is victorious over his wily opponents after brief but animated battle.
- Oct. 26.—The Colonel and Capt. Bill buy a supply of jewelry which they "may" need in the future.
- Oct. 29.—Bennie Rhodes finds many "crumbling pieces of dandruff" in his otherwise beautiful locks.
- Oct. 31.—Col. Duncan re-organizes the landscape gardening class. Only evil doers are admitted. Postel is appointed chairman.
- Nov. 1.—Discovery is made that Spence is the remnant of Spencer who was such a character on the campus last year.
- Nov. 5.—The football team plays Florence, Florence High School, all the officials and then some more, to a 0-0 tie.
- Nov. 7.—Harry Matthews renders a midnight serenade for the benefit of Guilds Hall. A mouth organ is the wicked instrument used.
- Nov. 10.—Editor Campbell of the Bugle hands in an article for his paper. As we go to press the second article has not been handed in.
- Nov. 13.—A rumor is circulated that the football team played Porter.
- Nov. 16.—Rudolph Bozard composes the famous poem, "Oh, Where Have My Dirty Clothes Gone?"
- Nov. 19.—This is a red letter day in the history of Carlisle, since "Lieut." Atkinson arrives on the campus.
- Nov. 22.—No drill, no football practice, no "nothing"—Glorious life!
- Nov. 25.—Largest crowd of the season sees Carlisle defeat Richmond Academy by the score of 20 to 0.
- Nov. 30.—"Hog" Lever takes a ride in a "free" automobile.
- Dec. 1.—Capt. Lanham duplicates "Hog's" feat.
- Dec. 5.—Christmas Exams. begin. Ye Gods!
- Dec. 9-10.—Juniors stand Algebra and Science. All pass—out the door.
- Dec. 15.—We learn that the tender heart of the Colonel and the fertile brain of Capt. Lanham combine to give us a few more holidays.
- Dec. 17.—We go home for the holidays. No tears are reported.