

THE PALMETTO

- Jan. 3.—We again invade the campus. Peter Stokes is the first to arrive. He became horribly homesick in Orangeburg.
- Jan. 7.—The first of our many extra drill periods “happens”.
- Jan. 13.—Carlisle is again blessed—“Lieut. Atkinson” arriving ten days late from Christmas furlough.
- Jan. 17.—The regular gang cut church under the leadership of the Warren brothers.
- Jan. 20.—Capt. Lever fails to have a date—he is confined to his bed.
- Jan. 23.—The Colonel expresses a desire to take the summer tour with the band, thereby revealing his ambition to enter the lovely bonds of matrimony.
- Jan. 27.—Major Watson falls for another pretty lady.
- Jan. 30.—The “ex-tinguished” school pest, Robert Rodgers, withdraws from school.
- Feb. 1.—Warm water is reported in Brabham Hall for the third time this year.
- Feb. 4.—The perpetual motion maniac, Sergt. Spell, almost discovers said motion.
- Feb. 7.—Goethe, Postel, and “Son” Daniels set themselves up to a set of books.
- Feb. 11.—“Geese” Deason falls a victim to spring fever.
- Feb. 12.—Stackhouse decides to enter the aviation service.
- Feb. 15.—Capt. Gault frails a Sub-Freshman. The Captain’s nerves are overwrought by the continual “Pinafore” practice.
- Feb. 17.—Miss Kearsce gets a new supply of pills and turpentine.
- Feb. 20.—Jake Houston, Shealy, and Sis Gallman begin to use lipsticks.
- Feb. 24.—The basketball season closes with a 47 to 12 victory over North Augusta.
- Feb. 28.—Jake Smith shaves his head and regrets the act immediately.
- Feb. 30.—Absolutely no work was done on this date.
- Mch. 1.—Baseball and track work are going along nicely. “Little Boy” Durham is a good prospect for the 100 yard dash, having made the distance in 33 minutes.
- Mch. 9.—Second term exam. schedule is announced. No time for recording other events.
- Mch. 10.—Annual goes to press. Capt. Bill is happier than the entire Staff.
