

BOTH the school and its activities were hard hit by the war. Few athletic trips could be made on account of gasoline and tire rationing. In the mess hall, we had to be more careful with sugar and coffee.

Most of the seniors will go to army in June.

So you can see that the war has affected the school very much this year. But we, the Corps of Cadets, have tried to do our share in the war effort.

C L A S S E S