

SENIOR CLASS

ROYCE LATHAM
Washington, D. C.

Square-shouldered, determined, and with high ideals, "Basil" came to us from our nation's capital.

While the Academic Department seemed to be hot on his trail, "Basil," like the well-known rabbit, was always a jump ahead, not only with his studies, but also with his outstanding ability as a fullback on the varsity football team.

43-44. Pvt. Co. B; Football; Bugle Staff; Block "C" Club.

CHARLES EDWIN LEE
Charleston, S. C.

Loyal to his O.A.O., always ready to help a friend in need, and proud of his home town—that was Charlie. He made up in ability and spirit what he lacked in size. A good bull session, or a quiet afternoon of bunk drill, or whatever it was, received his undivided attention and support. Wherever good fellows meet, Charlie will always be welcome.

43-44. Pvt. Co. B; Pfc. Co. B; Literary Society.

JAMES BRAXTON LOVETT, JR.
Indiantown, S. C.

Born and reared in the old South Carolina village of Indiantown, "Mossgrove" is a true Southerner, which means that he is lover of hunting big game. Maybe he's not the school's best athlete, nor its ablest scholar, but he manages to get around and is able to keep away from the bottle and dice. A keen sense of humor, coupled with a natural ability in most fields, should keep him out in front of whatever field he undertakes.

42-43. Pvt. Co. A. 43-44. Color Cpl.; Noncom. Club.

ROBERT EDGAR McALLISTER
Miami, Fla.

From the sunny side of Miami came our "Mac," stern of purpose, square of jaw, with a goodly portion of the old "Black and Gold," and a few inhibitions withal. Six years wrought a wondrous change, and he has turned into one of the school's most able officers. The luck we wish him in the future will be needless, for here's a man who can't be stopped.
