

SENIOR CLASS

JAMES WILLIAM SMYLY

Ruffin, S. C.

A true gentleman of the old South, "Jimmie" made an inspiring record at Carlisle. Standing in the top quarter of the class, he was never too busy to aid a puzzled classmate with any difficult problem. "Jimmie" was a brilliant student, a stalwart officer, and a perfect roommate. Here's to a swell fellow!

42-43. Pvt. Co. A; Crack Pla'oon. 43-44. Sgt. Bn. Staff; 2nd Lt. Co. A; REBEL Staff; Cross Sabre Club; Literary Society.

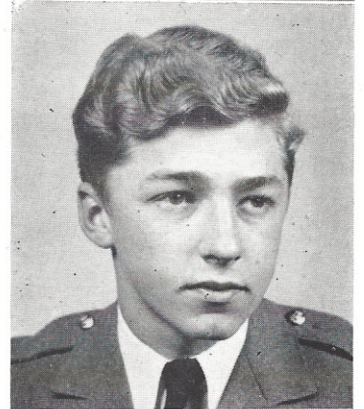

ROBERT DOUGLAS USSERY

Statesville, N. C.

Undoubtedly, "Bob" was one of the finest fellows ever to enter the academy. His close friends admired him for his sterling character and the Corps was proud of his ability as a "bruising" center on the football team. He was a swell sport, an understanding companion, and a true gentleman. With a foundation like this, coupled with a pleasing personality, "Bob" ought to go far in life.

42-43. Pvt. Co. A. 43-44. Corp. Co. A; Sgt. Co. B; Managing Editor, REBEL Staff; Football; Block "C" Club; Noncom. Club; President Literary Society.

NELSON EDWARD WALRATH, JR.

Pittsburg, Pa.

"Boots" came to us in the fall of '42 from his home-land of Pittsburgh. He isn't very athletic, but he stands near the top of the class in his studies. If all harsh feelings had to originate from "Boots," we assure you that this would be a world of eternal peace. Best of luck to you and we all hope to see you in the future.

42-43. Pvt. Co. A. 43-44. Sgt. Co. A; Supply Sgt. Co. A; REBEL Staff; Noncom. Club.
