

The "Cross Sabre Club" is the oldest cadet organization at Carlisle. It is composed of those cadets whose seniority in years, scholastic record, character, and leadership enable them to hold the rank of a commissioned officer.

The members of this club hold frequent meetings to discuss problems pertaining to the betterment of the school.

The success of the school depends on these few officers, for through them the conduct and morale of the corps flourish.

*First row, left to right: Pinder, Newton, Biron, du Fief.
Second row: Hanzo, Chauncey, Smith, B., English, Custard.
Third row: McAbee, Warren, Nihoul, Burns, Griffith, Gregory.
Fourth row: Lynch, De Luca, Pridgen, Duke, Eddy.*

CROSS SABRE CLUB