

Realizing that a good rifle team is a valuable asset in any military organization, twelve men with the highest scores were chosen out of the fifty members in the "Rifle Club" to represent the school as the "Rifle Team."

Under the capable instruction of Captain Waddy Thompson, and the management of Henry Eddy, they made a team of which the school was justly proud.

The "Rifle Team" competed in the following matches: Fourth Service Command Rifle Match, Hearst Trophy, and Roosevelt Military School.
