

WINFRED RONALD BRASWELL

Thomasville, Ga.

"BRAS"

About all we can say about "Bras" is that he is really gifted with the knack of writing. If ever anyone needs help with some theme or some report, they would only have to look up "Bras" and their's would come out way ahead of everyone else's. Carry on "Bras".

JOHN ANDREW CARLISLE

Hagerstown, Maryland

"QUIET JOHN"

Hailing from the thriving metropolis of Hagerstown came "Quiet John". Never lost for words, but always limiting his words to those few necessary to express his thoughts was one of John's most unusual traits. Carlisle has lost a scholar, a gentleman and a cadet. The world has gained a citizen, who will soon make his mark.

LEON WARREN CASTLES

Great Falls, S. C.

"T. P."

Every year a person's mind grows broader and can judge others by their actions. "T. P." started at Carlisle in '46 as a Soph. and has worked himself up and into the Senior Class of '48. It is because of this that I say: "We, the Senior's of '48, have all the confidence of the world in you, "T. P.""

ROBERT CHAPLIN

Hartsville, S. C.

"BOBBY"

Well! . . . you'd probably say if you ever walked down the corridor of the second-section shortly after fall-in to call-to-quarters had blown. A person would think that the wild west bandits of old had come back, but it would only be "Bobby" with his handkerchief across his face sweeping the hall. By the way, "Bobby", that hall really sparkled.

DONALD PAUL COFFELT

Falls Church, Va.

"DON"

Don, although a senior his first year, has made an impression on the boys that shall never be forgotten. "Don" with his friendly smile was always there to lend a hand when trouble came your way. No matter where he goes there is happiness, and we know he will make good always.

HUGH L. COTTON, JR.

Jacksonville, Fla.

"HUGO"

It is beyond us at this present time, as it is with "Hugo" to say what he will do in the cosmopolitan world, but take it from all who have ever had contact with him—he's carrying the goods—and he'll deliver.
